Jesus, Lover of a Woman's Soul: Seeing Yourself through God's Eyes By Dr. Erwin Lutzer, Rebecca Lutzer

For centuries, Christian women have struggled to find their place in the church—and before God. Deep down inside, a woman may ask herself, Does God really care about me? Does he value me as much as he does men? The answers lie with Jesus himself—in his words and in his real relationships with women during his life. In Jesus, Lover of a Woman's Soul, Erwin and Rebecca Lutzer reveal the truth about Jesus and women. He defied tradition and affirmed women as equal partners in the family of God. Inside you'll find true stories about real biblical women who experienced a divine encounter with Jesus. His gifts of hope, healing, forgiveness, and deliverance are still available to women today. Jesus changed everything for women. Look inside to find out why, how—and what it means for you.

From the Back Cover

Does God really care about me? Does He value me as much as He does men? Do I count in God's eyes? If you've ever asked yourself these questions, you're not alone. For centuries, women have struggled to understand their role in God's kingdom and their place in His heart. The answers lie with Jesus Himself?in His words and in His real relationships with women during His life and ministry. In Jesus, Lover of a Woman's Soul, you'll find true stories about real women. Each one had exhausted her resources and needed a miracle from someone who understood her and would not condemn her. Each story tells of a divine encounter and points to the gifts that Jesus offers to every woman: Hope. Healing. Forgiveness. Deliverance. And much, much more. Join Erwin and Rebecca Lutzer as they reveal the truth about Jesus and women: how He defied tradition by affirming women and daring to teach that they are valuable?even when they don't value themselves. Jesus changed everything for women. Look inside to find out why, and how?and what it means for you.
