Editorial Review

Review

Steele pulls no punches as he explains how to attract the young, from dress codes to actions. The honest approach and advice are unusually solid and explicit, from sex and the young woman to analysis of her real motivation to step-by-step courting scenarios, with emphasis on strategy based on understanding. Men interested in a no-holds-barred approach will find this book unique, one of the most refreshing guides available. Women not involved in defining chauvinist behavior will learn a lot, too. --Diane Donovan, Chicago Tribune, July 18, 1992

From the Publisher

45,000 copies sold to date. Absolutely guaranteed money back no questions asked. Steele has been on Montel Williams, Jenny Jones, Jane Whitney and Danny Bonaduce TV shows and done over 200 radio interviews.

From the Author

Credentials? been there and back, plus I've made every possible mistake but learned from it all. But, I wrote it all down, the successes, the failures, the frustration, the joys, the pain. It's all there for you to learn from. Since 1972, when I was 32, I've only been involved with young women: married to, divorced from, lived with and dated. Now, at 56, I am living with and loving Joanna Bardot Lopez, 23. If you want truth, not pie-in-the-sky promises this book is for you. The Revised Edition includes all original material plus everything else that I've learned the hard way. Every year hundreds of guys write thanking me for turning their dating lives around. Many suggest I delete "Young" from the title because much of the strategy, tactics, methods and advice apply equally to women of all ages. I agree, but the title gets me on the radio and on TV, necessary to sell books.
