Love Me Steady By Elle Vanzandt

Penelope 'Nellie' Brennan has finally had it! Tired of her health problems holding her back, Nellie is determined to do just whatever she wants to do and no one is going to stop her. First item on the list for the determined 17-year old: secure a date to her first school formal dance. Second: find the perfect dress. Brian Moss has agreed to a favor for his Mama: take her friend's daughter to the girl's first formal dance. All it took was a glance at Nellie for Brian's interest to be piqued. He needed to know more. What started out as a half-blind date, soon became so much more when Brian learns of Nellie's big secret. Even after discovering the truth, Brian doesn't run from her. Nellie is as surprised as those near and dear to her. But can Nellie trust him to stay? Will Brian be able to handle things when they get even harder? Can their quickly-deepening relationship survive the truth?

Editorial Review

About the Author

Elle Vanzandt grew up a Navy brat who has had the privilege of living in many places but she will always call Illinois her home. A wife to a caring husband, a stay-at-home mom to two amazing children, a blogger, and a writer, she wears many hats. With determination and strength taught to her by her mother, she has made it through many obstacles, always sticking with the family motto 'pull up your bootstraps and get it done'. Writing is an adventure she could have never predicted but is enjoying the ride all the same.
