Editorial Review

About the Author

Mike Mehrle is a 40 year experienced technician who has worked in manufacturing, distribution and assembly industries. Mike has been a corporate manager for three national assembly service providers over eight years. The positions held were business developer, regional manager, trainer and recruiter. After years of helping other technicians learn the best ways to get the job done quickly and correctly helping the consumer by assembling and installing their products for them; Mike has now produced "Beyond the Instructions". With Beyond the Instructions, Mike teaches the reader the same information thousands of technicians used to excel in a very niche and relatively unknown industry. The book "Beyond the Instructions" is laid out in easy to read and understand so that the average person can pick up on what the manufacturer's instructions are attempting to describe.
