The Undertaker's Greatest Opponents By Stuart Carapola

It goes without saying that the Undertaker is one of the greatest wrestlers of this generation, winning multiple World Titles and establishing the legendary Wrestlemania undefeated streak. Though the company was never built around him for a long period of time, he has been every bit as valuable to WWE as Hulk Hogan, Stone Cold Steve Austin, John Cena, The Rock, or anyone else who has worked there in the staggering 26 years since his debut. He's fought every major star to come down the pike for the last quarter of a century, and some of the feuds he engaged in have become the stuff of legends. This book tells the stories of six of his greatest feuds, and shows you how and why he became one of the biggest stars to ever set foot in a WWE ring.

This book also contains the following bonus features:

- The Undertaker's Brother Is Alive (And Paul Bearer Nailed His Mom)
- The Undertaker vs Shawn Michaels: Twelve Years In The Making
- The Book Like WWE Challenge
