Timeshift: The Experience of Dimensional Change By Janet Iris Sussman

Timeshift is an experimental linguistic voyage into the fabric of our thinking. Time is the principal component of our psychology; it is the master shaper of future, past and present. Time is witnessed through links in consciousness structured in our nervous system. We interpret these time codes as messages based in our rational intellect. This book is a gate into a non-linear perspective of time.

Editorial Review

Review

"Timeshift is a scientific poem that introduces readers to an expanded notion of what it means to be human....

-- Nelson Gary, NAPRA Journal

Timeshift cracks open the dome overhead to allow us to connect with the fluid vastness of our own multidimensionality.... -- Katharine Hanna, Fairfield Reader

About the Author

Janet Iris Sussman is the author of THE REALITY OF TIME (2005), a fuller exposition of the ideas in TIMESHIFT. For over a quarter of a century, she has experimented with higher developmental processes of creativity during waking, dreaming, and meditative states. The expression of complex interdimensional concepts in written and oral form is her passion and her art. Janet is also a spiritual counselor, healer, and musician. She gives seminars and transformational music concerts throughout the United States.
